Attorneys Del Greco and Veverka Keep Client from a Life in Prison

Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. attorneys Robert G. Del Greco, Jr. and Albert P. Veverka defended James Bongiorni, who was charged with criminal homicide. After a one-week jury trial, defended by Del Greco and Veverka, Mr. Bongiorni was acquitted of all charges based on a justification defense.

Mr. Bongiorni, 69 years old of Burgettstown, spent one year incarcerated in the Washington County Jail awaiting trial under the theory of first degree murder. After a two-hour deliberation, the jury found Bongiorni not guilty in the fatal shooting of his daughter's ex-boyfriend.

Had he been convicted, Mr. Bongiorni faced life in prison without the possibility of parole.

He has enjoyed a thirty-year career full of distinguished clientele and high profile cases including professional athletes and elected officials.
