

Diversity and Inclusion

Commitment to Diversity, Inclusion and Justice

In a year when issues of racism and social injustice have been brought to the forefront, we at Dickie McCamey want to emphasize our ongoing stand against both.

We stand in solidarity with the Black community, other communities of color, and all of our diverse neighbors, colleagues, family, and friends. We categorically oppose racism, prejudice, and injustice, regardless of the form they may take.

In Congressman John Lewis's book, Across That Bridge: A Vision for Change and the Future of America, he wrote: "Ours is not the struggle of one day, one week, or one year ... Ours is the struggle of a lifetime, or maybe even many lifetimes, and each one of us in every generation must do our part." We are fully committed to continue doing "our part," both within our firm, the legal community, and in our daily lives.

Commitment and Responsibility

Our commitment to diversity and inclusion is demonstrated through our programs and involvement with clients, bar associations, and the communities we serve. We are dedicated to promoting a work environment that fosters and enhances diversity and inclusion. We believe that diversity leads to a stronger firm that is best able to provide excellent service to our clients.

Our Diversity and Inclusion Committee is chaired by a shareholder and consists of lawyers who are in various stages of their legal careers, located not just in Pittsburgh but our regional offices as well. The committee meets regularly and collaboratively with the firm's leadership to advance our ongoing commitment to a diverse and inclusive workplace with a focus on individuals subject to discrimination based on race, ethnic origin, gender, age, disability, sexual orientation, or sexual identity.

Pro Bono

Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote attorneys dedicate themselves to providing countless hours of professional time to public interest matters through pro bono work. This stems from the firm's strong commitment to making it possible for our attorneys to give back to our society in this manner. Our pro bono work benefits those individuals we serve as well as our community as a whole. Our lawyers' legal and interpersonal skills are enhanced through this form of professional and public service. It is Dickie McCamey's firm-wide policy to encourage partners and associates to provide pro bono legal services to those in need.
