DMC Expansion Continues with Williamsport, Pennsylvania Office

Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C., a national, full-service law firm, will continue its organic growth with the opening of a new office in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, on April 3. This expansion represents the firm's twentieth location and its seventh office in Pennsylvania. Dickie McCamey's Pennsylvania locations include Erie, Harrisburg, Hollidaysburg, Lehigh Valley, Philadelphia, and the headquarters in Pittsburgh.

"This expansion enables us to serve our clients more efficiently and positions our talented staff in areas critical for the effective representation desired by our clients," said Christopher T. Lee, Managing Attorney of Dickie McCamey's Pittsburgh office.

"The Williamsport office will widen the firm's footprint in Pennsylvania. In the past four years we have opened new offices in Lehigh Valley and Hollidaysburg and will now have seven locations in the Commonwealth," said Mr. Lee, who will also serve as Managing Attorney in Williamsport.

The Williamsport office will be staffed initially by Benjamin F. Colburn where he will concentrate his practice in the areas of general litigation, product liability law, and railroad litigation.

Dickie McCamey, a fixture in the Pittsburgh legal landscape since 1889, has shown a steady expansion since opening its first branch office in Wheeling, West Virginia, in 1992. DMC has 190 attorneys and employs 450 people across 20 locations in 10 states.

The Williamsport office is located at 460 Market Street, Suite 160.
