The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Names Dickie McCamey a Winner of the Pittsburgh Top Workplaces 2020 Award

Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote has been awarded a Top Workplaces 2020 honor by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette. The list is based solely on employee feedback gathered through an independent survey administered by employee engagement technology partner Energage, LLC. The anonymous survey uniquely measures 15 drivers of engaged cultures that are critical to the success of any organization including alignment, execution, and connection, just to name a few. Dickie McCamey was one of 92 companies in the Pittsburgh area that is being honored by Top Workplaces.

“In times of great change, it is more important than ever to maintain a connection among employees,” said Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. “When you give your employees a voice, you come together to navigate challenges and shape your path forward based on real-time insights into what works best for your organization. The Top Workplaces program can be that positive outcome your company can rally around in the coming months to celebrate leadership and the importance of maintaining an employee-focused culture, even during challenging times.”

“This is an appropriate time to thank all of you firm-wide for pulling together during these exceptional times. We have adapted well to the challenges,” said Jeffrey Wiley, Managing Director and Chief Operating Office of Dickie McCamey. “Like all employers, we will continue to face the uncertainty that is today's reality, but doing so together as a team continues to be a model for our success.”

Dickie McCamey has been a fixture in Pittsburgh's Golden Triangle since 1906 and currently employs more than 275 in the firm's Downtown headquarters at Two PPG Place.
