DMC Opens New Law Offices in Pennsylvania's Lehigh Valley and Detroit, Michigan

Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C., a national, full-service law firm, opened new offices in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, and another in metro Detroit, Michigan. This expansion represents the firm's 20th location and its sixth office in Pennsylvania.

"As with our other office openings, our expansion has been guided by serving clients' growing demands. Our growth strategy includes increasing the talent in all of our locations, ultimately delivering more value for the people we represent," said Jeffrey T. Wiley, Managing Director and Chief Operating Officer of Dickie McCamey.

The Lehigh Valley office in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, will be staffed by shareholder Candy Barr Heimbach, principal Michelle L. Wilson, and associate Matthew P. Hall. The office will concentrate on general civil litigation, with concentrations in medical and nursing professional liability, healthcare law, premises litigation, and motor vehicle litigation. The attorneys there also have served as local counsel in regional and national litigation, where knowledge of the local courts and potential jury populations can provide a decisive edge in significant cases.

"Our team in the Bethlehem office is delighted to join Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote. Every interaction with its attorneys and staff has left a positive impression about the firm's culture and expertise," said Lehigh Valley location chair Candy Barr Heimbach. "We look forward to working together to continue to provide excellent legal services to our clients."

Wiley added, "We have increased our coverage in Pennsylvania with the recent expansion into Hollidaysburg, and now the Lehigh Valley. We now have six locations in the Commonwealth that enable us to serve our clients more efficiently."

The Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan, location will enhance Dickie McCamey's Transportation Law Group with the addition of shareholder Timothy S. Groustra, along with attorneys Michael J. Peseski and Eduardo T. Reyes, Jr.

"The addition of a Michigan location bolsters our ability to deliver hands-on services to existing and future clients as we continue to expand the firm's footprint," said Wiley.

"We are excited to join Dickie McCamey and add Michigan to its growing list of offices. Dickie McCamey's depth and resources will allow us to better assist our clients in solving their problems," explained Detroit location chair Tim Groustra.

Dickie McCamey, a fixture in the Pittsburgh legal landscape since 1889, has shown a steady expansion since opening a branch office in Wheeling, West Virginia, in 1992. DMC now has 188 attorneys and employs more than 400.
