Gabrielle M. Carbonara is an associate of Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. Ms. Carbonara handles family law matters, including step-parent adoptions in Pennsylvania, and concentrates her practice in the areas of real estate, energy law, and mineral law in Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia, and Colorado, with a particular emphasis on issues related to the development and purchase of oil, gas and other minerals. She is also skilled in reviewing and drafting various types of title opinions, including drilling, leasehold and coal opinions, and analyzing complex leaseholds and heirships. She is a member of the firm's Pro Bono Committee and Associates Committee.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Carbonara practiced as a lead review attorney for a local mineral-focused land company encompassing the Appalachian region, as well as an associate attorney with small local firm specializing in family law and criminal defense. During law school, she served as an intern to the Honorable Kathleen R. Mulligan of the Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas Family Division and the Honorable Mary Jane Bowes of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania. Additionally, Ms. Carbonara volunteered as a certified legal intern at KidsVoice.
