James R. Andrzejewski is a shareholder of Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C., working out of the Philadelphia office. He concentrates his practice in the area of civil litigation, with a particular emphasis on insurance defense matters. He handles the defense of general liability matters, including premises liability and product liability matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Andrzejewski served as litigation counsel for an international insurance carrier. As litigation counsel, he handled a myriad of general liability matters, with his work on those cases involving all aspects of litigation, including discovery, expert and fact witness development, counseling clients, and preparation for trial.
