Jazwinski and Warhola to lead Dickie McCamey's Real Estate Group

Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. announced today that Gene L. Jazwinski, Esquire, and Adam J. Warhola, Esquire, will lead Dickie McCamey's Real Estate Group, comprised of its Oil, Gas and Mineral Title Services Group, Real Estate transactional practice, and Real Estate litigation practice.

During his 27-year career in the real estate industry, Mr. Jazwinski has served in a variety of leadership positions, having been involved in thousands of title-related transactions and opinions. From his early career as the manager of a mortgage branch of a national bank to general counsel for a national title agency operating in 43 states, he owned and operated his own title agency. When the Marcellus shale boom began in 2007, Mr. Jazwinski was tapped as one of the first lawyers in the region to author oil and gas title opinions. He will work closely with Dickie McCamey's Energy Group, chaired by Rodger L. Puz, Esquire, a former petroleum engineer.

Mr. Warhola's real estate practice includes the representation of all parties involved in commercial or residential transactions, including buyers, sellers, landlords, and tenants with a particular emphasis on lenders. His elevation to this leadership position is a testament to his experience handling real estate transactions, hard work, and enthusiasm for these practices and the firm throughout his career.

In addition to Messrs. Jazwinski and Warhola, Dickie McCamey's Real Estate Group includes firm shareholders James P. Killeen, Esquire, and J. David Ziegler, Esquire, and firm principals William P. Bresnahan II, Esquire, and Harlan S. Stone, Esquire, each of whom serve as counsel for all aspects of oil, gas, mineral, title, and real estate law.

"From our offices in Pittsburgh, West Virginia, and Ohio we have and will continue to provide legal counsel from the heart of the Marcellus and Utica shale plays. Gene's experience with title work, particularly in Oil and Gas, is unparalleled in the tri-state area. We are quite confident that the commitment of our lawyers to provide responsive, cost-effective, and high quality legal advice will grow our Real Estate practice as never before," remarked Jeff Wiley, the firm's Managing Director.
