Katrina M. Eichstaedt Named an Associate in Oil, Gas and Mineral Services Group

Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. has announced that Katrina M. Eichstaedt has become an associate in the firm's Oil, Gas and Mineral Services Group. She is based in the firm's Pittsburgh office. Ms. Eichstaedt makes the transition into the staff position after serving as a contract attorney with the firm since August 2017.

The DMC Oil, Gas and Mineral Services Group is part of the Real Estate Group. These specially skilled attorneys produce certified mineral title opinions including complex drilling title opinions and title curative and perform land and legal due diligence associated with mineral transactions.

Before joining Dickie McCamey, Ms. Eichstaedt was an attorney abstractor researching complete title abstracts in addition to surface and mineral ownership in the oil and gas industry in Ohio, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia since March 2014.

The Michigan native is an unapologetic sports fan. "My heart still belongs to my Detroit teams, especially the Tigers and Lions, although I will always root for my Pittsburgh teams, too, as long as they aren't playing Detroit," Ms. Eichstaedt explains. Before and during the early years of her undergraduate work at Oakland University, she briefly contemplated a drama career and earned IMDb credit on her resume.

Ms. Eichstaedt received her LL.M. in Corporate Law and Finance from Western Michigan University's Thomas M. Cooley Law School in 2013 after earning her J.D. from the same institution in 2011.
