Leah M. Hohenberger is a trial lawyer and consultant to businesses, individuals, and insurance companies. With over 15 years of trial experience, she is adept at assessing and presenting complex factual and legal issues to judges and juries. She concentrates her practice in the areas of transportation, toxic tort law, the food and beverage industry, medical liability, municipal law, product liability, and construction. Ms. Hohenberger is an effective advocate, having successfully negotiated complex business disputes, prosecuted appellate matters, and tried jury cases to defense verdicts. In 2008, she was invited by her peers to be the President of the Cleveland Association of Civil Trial Attorneys, and she is regularly invited to address legal education seminars and client conferences. She is also currently a member of the Catholic Lawyers Guild Executive Committee.

Ms. Hohenberger is admitted to practice in all state and federal courts in Ohio, as well as in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
