

6/22/2023 | Press Releases

Mary Barley-McBride Named to Women Columbus Super Lawyers Top List

Mary Barley-McBride, a shareholder at Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote's Columbus office, has been named to Top 25: 2023 Women Columbus Super Lawyers List. This is the fourth time she has been honored in the Top 25; having previously earned the distinction in 2015, 2016, and 2017.

Super Lawyers is a designation of top-rated practicing attorneys selected through extensive evaluation. She was awarded this distinction for 2009–2023.

Ms. Barley-McBride concentrates her practice in the areas of construction law, insurance defense, medical malpractice, real estate, and premises liability, with a particular emphasis in professional liability.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Barley-McBride practiced with a local firm in Columbus. Before beginning her career in private practice, she served as a law clerk to the Honorable Norah McCann King, United States Magistrate Judge for the Southern District of Ohio.

Mary Barley-McBride earned her Juris Doctor cum laude from The University of Toledo College of Law.