Scott Clements Gives Transportation Law Update

Scott D. Clements, a shareholder of Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. (DMC), will speak at the Pennsylvania Bar Institute's (PBI) Transportation Law Update. He will speak to audiences in Pittsburgh on Wednesday, April 6, and in Philadelphia on Monday, April 25, 2016.

Mr. Clements will be part of a railroad law panel discussing the following topics:

- Federal Employers' Liability Act (FELA)
- Locomotive Inspection Act (LIA)
- Federal preemption
- NTSB investigations

Mr. Clements serves as Co-Chair of the Railroad Law, Litigation and Regulatory Counsel Group, and he is also a member of the firm's Transportation Law Group and the Insurance Law and Litigation Group. He has extensive experience representing Class I, Regional, and Short Line railroad companies in Federal Employers' Liability Act (FELA) and state tort claim litigation.

Mr. Clements earned his J.D. from Notre Dame Law School and has practiced transportation and railroad law for 20 years.
