Webinar 6/10/2020: How The Impact Of COVID-19 Is Changing Insurance Claims

The COVID-19 pandemic and related shutdowns have opened up uncharted territory for insurance organizations and claims professionals. Beyond policy language, insurers must deal with timeliness, access, new workers' compensation exposures, facility and workplace risks, and more. A panel of insurance claims professionals will examine the legal and logistical issues confronting the claims sector, how insurers are responding, and developments shaping the post-COVID-19 era.
