OVER 4 MILLION EVALUATIONS — THREE DICKIE McCAMEY ATTORNEYS SELECTED AS “BEST”

Three Dickie McCamey attorneys are honored for their abilities, professionalism, and integrity in Pittsburgh, as being named Best Lawyers’ “Lawyer of the Year 2013” — George P. Kachulis, Robert J. Marino, and Anthony J. Rash.

Only a single lawyer in each practice area and designated metropolitan area is honored. The recognition is based on the voting averages received during Best’s peer-review assessments, which this year yielded over 4.3 million evaluations. Out of 56 “Best Lawyers in Pittsburgh 2013,” three are Dickie McCamey attorneys.

George P. Kachulis has been named Best Lawyers’ 2013 Pittsburgh Medical Malpractice Law – Defendants “Lawyer of the Year.”

Robert J. Marino has been named Best Lawyers’ 2013 Pittsburgh Insurance Law “Lawyer of the Year.”

Anthony J. Rash has been named Best Lawyers’ 2013 Pittsburgh Product Liability Litigation – Defendants “Lawyer of the Year.”

George P. Kachulis is a shareholder/director of Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. and serves as an elected member of the firm’s Executive Committee. Mr. Kachulis is a member of the firm’s Peer Review Committee and had served as the longtime chair and co-chair of the firm’s Associates Committee. He has extensive civil litigation and trial experience in many areas, including professional malpractice (medical, chiropractic, and podiatric), product liability, motor vehicle/transportation negligence cases, construction law, and commercial law.

Mr. Kachulis has litigated cases for local, regional, and national clients in his various areas of practice. In his over 20 years of jury trial experience, he has obtained defense verdicts for individual professionals, health care institutions, and corporations in courtrooms through the tri-state area.

Mr. Kachulis is an elected member of the Academy of Trial Lawyers of Allegheny County and graduated with his J.D. from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law in 1985.

Robert J. Marino is a shareholder/director of Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. He concentrates his practice in the areas of insurance bad faith/coverage litigation, professional malpractice, premises liability, legal malpractice, and product liability law. He has tried jury cases in all of these fields. He is chairman of the firm’s Insurance Law and Litigation Practice Group and previously served as an elected member of the Executive Committee of the firm for over 12 years.

Mr. Marino was elected and inducted into the prestigious American College of Trial Lawyers, in national recognition of his skills trying cases to juries, and was also elected and inducted into the Academy of Trial Lawyers of Allegheny County, a group limited to 250 trial lawyers.

In 2003, Mr. Marino was elected to the prestigious Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel (FDCC), a national organization of claims executives and civil defense lawyers. Membership in this select group is by invitation only.

Mr. Marino graduated from the Duquesne University School of Law in 1979 with his J.D., cum laude.

Anthony J. Rash is a shareholder/director of Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. and a senior member of the firm's Product Liability and Transportation Practice Groups. With a particular emphasis in the practice of product liability law, Mr. Rash principally represents and is consulted by various sized manufacturers and retailers in the industrial, commercial, and consumer industries. He also regularly represents interstate carriers by rail in Federal Employers' Liability Act and personal injury actions. The breadth of Mr. Rash's practice encompasses representing governmental agencies in civil rights litigation; defending a vast array of individual, business, and professional clients in insurance defense litigation; and providing legal consultation to non-profit entities.

He received his J.D. from The Dickinson School of Law of the Pennsylvania State University in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, in 1989.
