DICKIE, McCAMEY & CHILCOTE
ELECTS THREE NEW SHAREHOLDERS

Dickie, McCamey & Chilcote, P.C. is pleased to announce that Brett W. Farrar, Bryon R. Kaster, and Timothy R. Stevenson have been elected shareholders in the firm.

Brett W. Farrar is resident in the Pittsburgh office and concentrates his practice in the areas of commercial litigation, legal malpractice defense, and civil litigation. Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Farrar served as a law clerk to the Hon. Eugene E. Fike, II, in the Pennsylvania Court of Common Pleas, and also worked as an attorney in the Bayer Corporation litigation department. He graduated from the University of Pittsburgh in 1990 with two bachelor of arts degrees and received his J.D. from Duquesne University School of Law in 1996. Mr. Farrar is a resident of Gibsonia.

Bryon R. Kaster works in the Harrisburg office and is a member of the firm's Commercial Law and Litigation and Insurance Law and Litigation Practice Groups. His practice is concentrated in the areas of bad faith/coverage litigation, construction litigation, product liability litigation, and legal malpractice. He has successfully represented clients in both state and federal courts, as well as in matters before the Pennsylvania Insurance Department. After graduating from Penn State University, Mr. Kaster received his J.D. from the Dickinson School of Law. He serves on the board of governors of the Blue Ridge Country Club as its vice president. Mr. Kaster lives in Susquehanna Township.

Timothy R. Stevenson is also based in the Pittsburgh office, where he concentrates his practice in the area of business torts and commercial litigation with a particular emphasis in construction and surety law. He also practices in toxic tort law, with an emphasis in the asbestos and silica litigation. Mr. Stevenson represents manufacturers, suppliers, and construction clients in lawsuits involving claims for asbestos and silica exposure. He has been involved in various phases of litigation in hundreds of cases in southwestern Pennsylvania and throughout West Virginia. He is a cum laude graduate of Washington & Jefferson College, with a bachelor of arts in political science. He earned his J.D. from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, where he was a staff member of the Pittsburgh Journal of Technology, Law and Policy. Mr. Stevenson is a resident of Sewickley.
